WEIGHT & QUALITY DETERMINATION :WEIGHT :

If the weight difference between B/L and Buyer's weighbridge certificate is more than 0.5%, Seller should settle all weight differences from BL weight. But in case of the shortage is within 0.5% differences, B/L weight will be final.

QUALITY :

If there are quality difference between scrap (discharged from container) and stipulated quality on contract, both parties will resolve the quality claim by amicable negotiation.

Should any quality problem be found not in conformity with the contract, Buyer shall be entitled to lodge the claims with Seller within 3 working days after Buyer receive the cargo at their yard. If quality claim occurs, both parties will amicably negotiate and well settle the claim issue. Seller has right to go for Buyer's factory to check the claim in person or dispatch 3rd party for reinspection. In this case, Buyer will keep the cargo intact until Seller finishes the investigation.

If no quality claim is arisen within 3 working days after cargo arrives at Buyer's yard, it means no quality dispute and Buyer fully accept the quality.

FORCE MAJEURE :

Neither seller nor buyer shall be liable for any delay or failure or performance under this contract where such failure or delay is caused by force majeure being any event ,occurrence or circumstance reasonably beyond the control of either party, including but not limited to : failure or delay caused by acts of god, strikes, fires , floods, wars(whether declared or undeclared or unclear), riots, delays or carriers due to breakdown or adverse weather, perils of the sea, embargoes, accidents, restrictions imposed by any governmental authority (including allocation , priorities, requisitions, quotas and price controls), lack of raw materials, gas, electricity etc. The time of seller to make or buyer to receive delivery, there under shall be extended during any of the foregoing clauses up to a total of 20days. If any delivery hereunder shall be so delayed or prevented for more than 20 days, either party may terminate this contract with respect to such delivery upon written notice to the other party without any legal intervention or arbitration and without being liable to indemnify the other party. The party claiming any of the above force majeure circumstances must immediately secure a force majeure certificate which must be issued and signed by the respective chamber of commerce. The certificate must state the nature and the duration of the force majeure circumstances.

ARBITRATION :
